COOPERATION BETWEEN NATIONAL COURTS AND EU INSTITUTIONS IN COMPETITION LAW CASES:
CHALLENGES AND OPPORTUNITIES

Abstract

The presentation explores the interplay between national courts and European Union institutions in the context of competition law enforcement of rules enshrined in Articles 101 and 102 TFEU. Cooperation between national competition authorities and national courts on one hand and EU institutions on the other hand is crucial for ensuring the effective and consistent application of competition rules.

The presentation deals with the mechanisms of this cooperation. It examines the role of the European Commission and the Court of Justice of the European Union (CJEU) in providing guidance to national competition authorities and national courts. It underscores the importance of a cohesive approach to competition law enforcement that is applied by national institutions of the EU member states.

DATE OF THE SEMINAR: 27TH MARCH 2025, 5 P.M.
